Suggested pathways to a minor in Arts*

Students interested in History
- HIST136 Revolutions and Revolutionaries
- HIST137 Modern World History
- HIST258 Revisiting Empire
- HIST275 The Muslim World, 600-1650
- HIST280 The Search for Meaning: Great Ideas of the Western Tradition

Students interested in Classics
- CLAS104 Greek Mythologies
- CLAS112 Roman History
- CLAS201 Theatre and Performance in the Ancient World
- CLAS213 Alexander the Great
- CLAS214 Imperial Rome

Students interested in Geography
- Geog106 Global environmental change
- Geog110 Dynamic places: exploring human environments
- Geog205 Introduction to Geographic Information Systems
- Geog223 Geospatial analysis in the social and environmental sciences
- Geog324 Advanced GIS

Students interested in Foreign Languages
- CHIN Chinese
- FREN French
- GRMN German
- JAPA Japanese
- RUSS Russian
- SPAN Spanish

(see www.lacl.canterbury.ac.nz)

*A minor consists of a minimum of 75 points in a single Arts subject, including at least 45 points above 100-level. The following are examples of Arts courses that Commerce students are likely to find interesting.

*AThese are only examples of minor pathways in Arts. To learn more, consult the Calendar, or contact one of the Arts student advisors below:
Azeen Tashakkor, azeen.tashakkor@canterbury.ac.nz
Erana Breitmeyer, erana.breitmeyer@canterbury.ac.nz

www.canterbury.ac.nz